Brookfield is a large, forward-looking 11-16 Community school and enjoys a good reputation in the local community. Students of all abilities achieved record GCSE results last summer and we look forward to further success this academic year.

An exciting opportunity has arisen for January 2018 to join a high performing Humanities Team committed to enhancing students' learning experience and raising standards of achievement. This is a post for an inspirational teacher who wants to develop their own practice in a department that displays a forward thinking and innovative approach.

An ability to teach a second humanities subject is an advantage.
