School Direct Placements

Brookfield School currently has vacancies for Non-Salaried School Direct trainees in English, Maths, Chemistry and Physics from September 2018.

We are a school committed to the development of a good quality, creative and resilient teachers. Working as part of the Wildern Partnership we can offer a cross phase, school based and coherent training programme which will ensure an excellent starting point for your career. Successful completion of the one year training programme will result in being awarded QTS, along with a Post Graduate Certificate of Education (PGCE) from the University of Chichester.

We are looking for teachers who are committed to the provision of outstanding teaching and learning. The successful trainee will be passionate about their subject area and will embrace the school ethos of aspire, act, achieve. The teaching profession looks for the highest quality candidates, so you will need to hold an undergraduate degree awarded by a UK higher education provider, or a recognised equivalent qualification. You will have achieved a standard equivalent to grade C or above, in the GCSE examinations in English and mathematics. Experience of working with 11-16 year olds is advantageous.

During your training year you will be supported by a Curriculum Mentor from your department area, and for the duration of your training your timetable will build up each term at a rate which is managed and agreed with your Mentor.

How to apply:

You will find these vacancies on UCAS (www.ucas.com) by searching for Wildern Partnership (School Direct) the UCAS Institution Code is 1LC. Trainees pay tuition fees of £9,000 and are eligible to receive a bursary depending on the training subject and their degree classification.
